

IS THE ST. PAUL COMMUNITY PREPARED FOR THE ALZHEIMER'S CRISIS?

Every 68 seconds, someone in America develops Alzheimer's disease.

The rise of Alzheimer's will bring enormous cost and burden to individuals with the disease, their families, caregivers, employers, communities and our state.

This is critical moment for our community to be ready for the expanding Alzheimer's crisis.

Join leaders and stakeholders from six St. Paul Neighborhoods* in a community discussion to increase the St. Paul area's support for residents who are touched by Alzheimer's disease.

Panel includes:

Chris Coleman, Mayor of St. Paul

Yvonne Prettner-Solon, Lieutenant Governor of Minnesota

Dawn Simonson, Executive Director, Metropolitan Area Agency on Aging

Susan Spalding, Executive Director, Alzheimer's Association

Olivia Mastry, ACT on Alzheimer's Lead Executive

Georgia Lane, Dementia Pathways Program Director, Carondelet Village

Initial pilot includes the following St. Paul Neighborhoods: Highland Park, Mac-Groveland, Summit Hill, Summit University, Union Park and West 7th.*
